THIS BOOK BELONGS TO

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Dear Parents of our little angels who will be the companions of our beloved Imam Zamaan (a.t.f.s),

As salaam o Alaykum

This workbook in hand is designed with several goals in mind. It is to help parents of young children (age between five to ten years) to encourage and develop the key attitudes and attributes including: Love and passion for azadari, Curiosity, Enquiry, Self-understanding etc. about the fundamental aspects of Fiqh e Ja'faria and to make them learn true facts and knowledge about the history.

As you go through the activities, you may discover that you already know some of them but for teaching them to children the facts need to be repeated again and again so it will have a lifelong learning impact, therefore, we have kept these activities simple and easy to understand. We request you that once your child completes an activity, kindly ask your children what they have learned, the more you ask questions children will develop better understanding and keep this gained knowledge for the entire life.

We have designed activities in such a way that our children feel connected and be enthusiastic about it in order to learn at their highest capacity. To conclude we have tried to empower you with the tool which can enhance our children's knowledge about the true facts of the history.

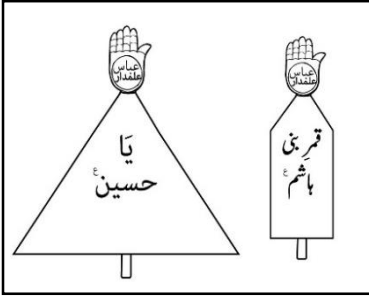

We also request you to fill up the form attached at the end of the booklet and either Email it on the address or Whatsapp on the number given below. Kindly fill up the details about your child (Name, Father's name and Country name) so we can issue an appreciation E-certificate to your child.

May Allah (s.w.t) and Masoomeen (a.s) grant us strength to be a true azadar and help us to raise the young soldiers of Imam e Zamaan (a.t.f.s)

Did you know?

Ziyarat al-Ashura is a Shia salutatory prayer to Imam Husayn (a.s) and the martyrs of Karbala, taught to us by Imam Muhammad Baqir (a.s). Reciting this ziyarat on the day of Ashura is considered a symbolic visit to the holy shrine of Imam Husayn (a.s).

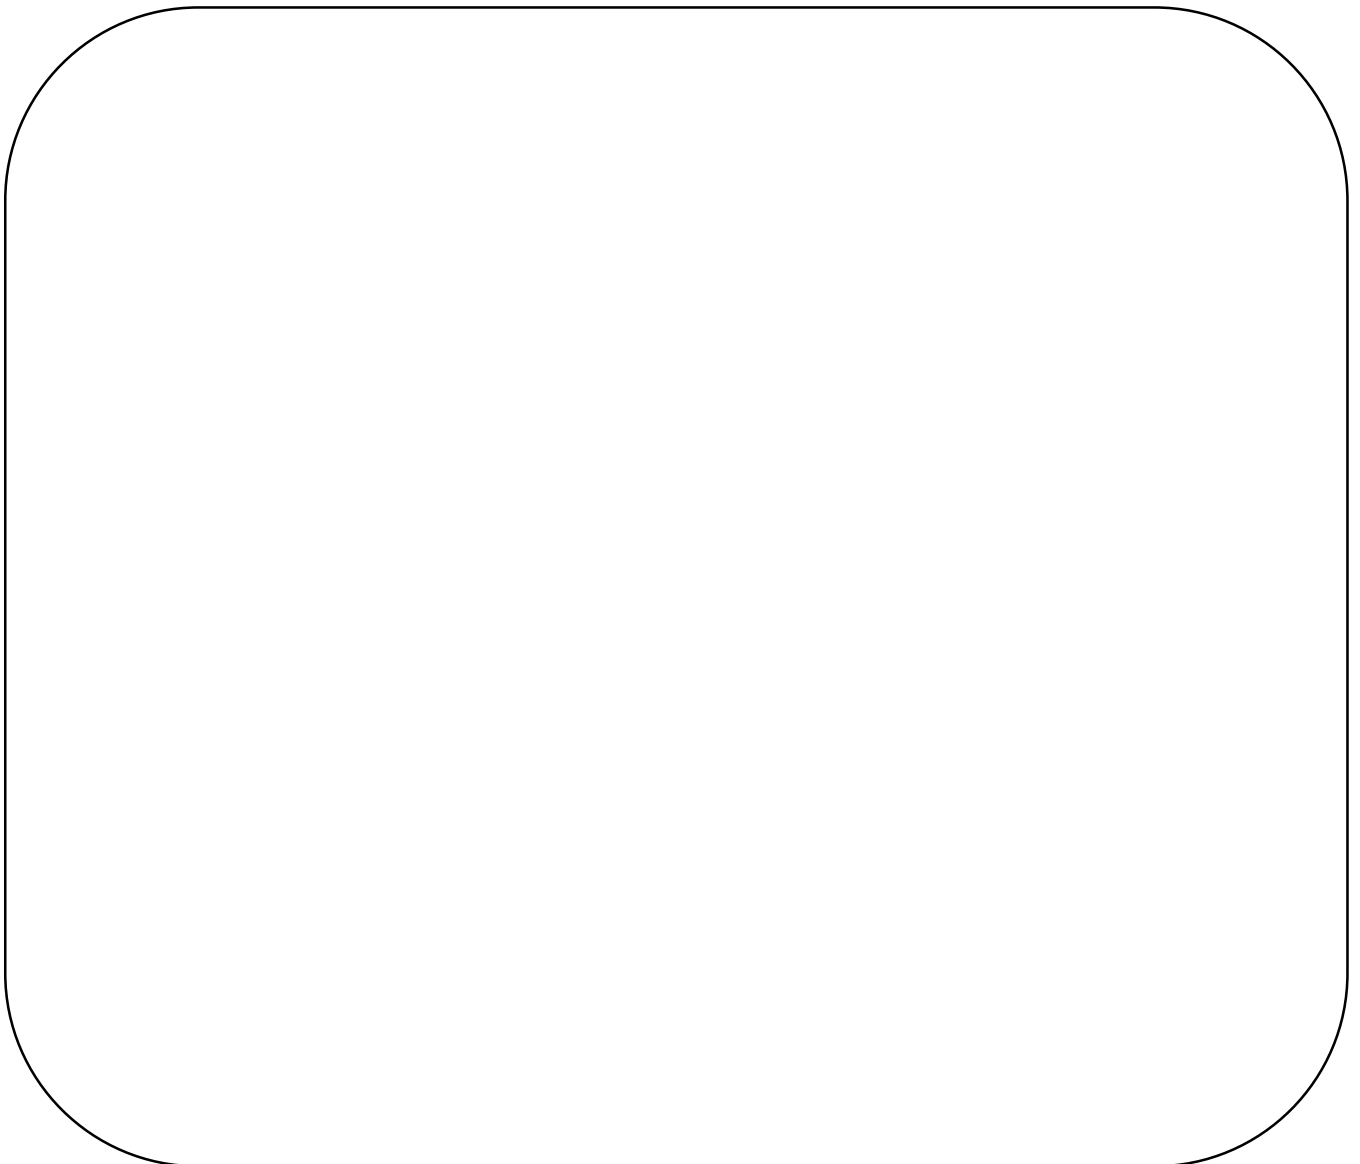

SHAM E GHARIBAN

The night following the day of Ashura is known as Sham e Ghariban (The night of the oppressed).

It was the night when the exhausted, hungry and tired families of Imam Husayn (a.s) and His companions sat in darkness and loneliness, after their tents were burned by the people of Yazid (l.a), each thinking about the loved ones they had lost in the unjust battle on that day.

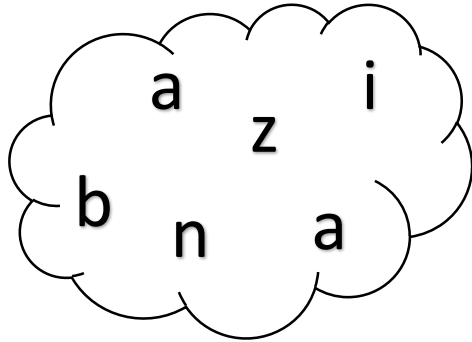

We turn off our house lights and light the candles to show solidarity with the families of Imam Husayn (a.s) and His companions. Draw and colour a lit candle below to commemorate Sham e Ghariban.

ARBAEEN

On 20th of Safar, we commemorate Arbaeen (40th day after the incident of Ashura) of the martyrs of Karbala. On this day, a year after Ashura, the caravan of Imam Husayn (a.s) returned to Karbala after getting released from the prison of Syria to visit the graves of their loved ones.

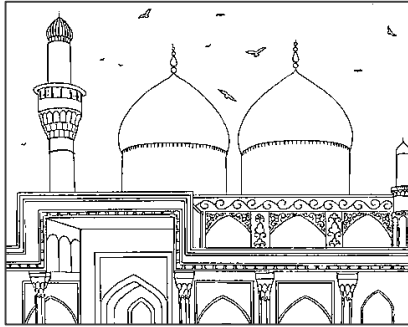

Muslims from all around the world travel to Iraq to commemorate this occasion, most of them walk from different cities (especially Najaf) towards Karbala. As we all wish to do so, let's find our way towards Karbala. Remember to stay away from bad deeds to keep Allah (s.w.t) and Imam Husayn (a.s) happy.

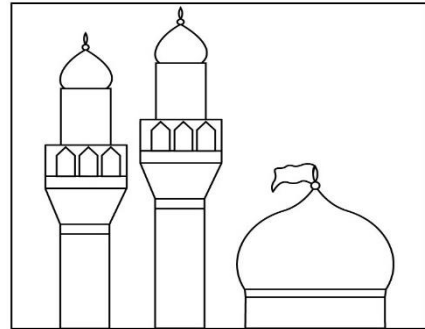

ZIYARAT OF IRAQ
